Guest Allergens Guide

VERSION 1.4

This guide provides information about allergens present in the products and ingredients we use in our restaurant. Whilst we have strict procedures and take great care to prevent cross-contamination in our kitchen, we cannot fully guarantee the separation of allergen-containing ingredients during storage, preparation, or cooking.

Our "may contain" statements are based on both manufacturer-provided information and our internal risk assessments, which identify potential cross-contact risks from shared storage or utensils.
